SECTION II

INSTRUCTION TO BIDDERS

1. Proposal to be considered

- a. Eligibility: Proposals which comply with the conditions and terms as stipulated in the Request for Proposal documents will be considered.
- b. Conflict of Interest: MRC considers a conflict of interest to be a situation in which a party has interests that could improperly influence that party's performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations.
- c. Amendment of RFP: At any time before the submission of Proposals, MRC may amend the RFP by issuing an addendum in writing or by standard electronic means. Consultants having informed MRC about their intention to submit a proposal will be informed directly. Any changes will be posted on MRC's website. MRC reserves the right to extend the submission deadline if the amendment is substantial.

2. Procurement package

The RFP consists of a single package.

3. Clarification

Request for clarifications should be made in writing and sent to the above-mentioned contact details.

Deadline for requests for clarifications is 7 days before the deadline for submission of the tender bids.

All MRCS replies will be in writing and posted on the MRC's website: www.mrcmekong.org under the section "Tenders".

4. Language of the Proposal

The Proposals prepared by the bidders and all correspondence and documents relating to the Proposal exchanged by the bidders and the MRCS shall be written in the English language. Any printed literature furnished by the bidders may be written in another language so long as accompanied by an English translation of its pertinent passages in which case, for purposes of interpretation of the Proposal, the English translation shall govern.

5. Proposal Currency

All prices shall be quoted in US dollars.

6. Period of Validity of Proposals

Proposals shall remain valid for one year after the date of Proposal submission prescribed by the MRC.

7. Submission of Proposals

7.1 Sealing and Marking of Proposals

The proposals shall be submitted in one outer sealed envelope containing two separate sealed envelopes, one envelope containing the Technical Proposal(s) and one envelope containing the Financial Proposal(s). The outer envelope shall be clearly marked “Proposal: RFP No.009-2020 “Security Service for MRC-RFDMC” - DO NOT OPEN BEFORE THE SUBMISSION DEADLINE”. The two sealed inner envelopes shall be marked “Technical Proposal(s)” and “Financial Proposal(s)” respectively. The sealed envelope shall be addressed to the Mekong River Commission Secretariat at the following address:

Mekong River Commission Secretariat – Regional Flood and Drought Management Center

Administration Division

Procurement Unit

P.O. Box 623, National Road No. 2,

Chak Angre Krom District, Khan Meanchey, Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

Tel: (855) 23 425 353; Fax: (855) 23 425 363

Email: sothea@mrcmekong.org

Alternatively, bidders are allowed to submit their proposal by email. Bidders who intend to submit electronic proposals must follow the following submission instructions:

- Bidders can submit a proposal by email. The proposal shall be separated in two files: one for technical proposal and one for financial proposal.
- The file for the financial proposal shall be protected by a password which shall be kept with the bidders. If the company passed the technical requirement threshold MRC would then request the password to open the financial proposal file. However, if the company loses the password or in case the file could not be opened the MRC would not assume responsibility.
- The file shall be in the form of MS word or MS excel (MS Office 2003 at least) or PDF version 7.
- Please send the electronic proposal to sothea@mrcmekong.org
- Please be aware that bids or proposals emailed to the MRCS will be rejected if they are received after the deadline for bid submission. As an email may take some time to arrive after it is sent, especially if it contains a lot of information, we advise all bidders to send email submissions well before the deadline.
- Maximum size for electronic submission: The maximum size per email that MRC can receive is 5MB. Bidders may need to split proposals into parts to fit this limit.

Please note that the proposal must be arrive in the aforementioned mailbox before the submission deadline

7.2 Deadline for Submission of Proposals

The deadline for submission of the bids is 07 December 2020 3:00 PM local time.

Proposals should contain details of the criteria for the selection mentioned below. The bid shall be prepared in English and one (1) original and five (5) copies must be submitted. The sealed bid envelope must be received by the Mekong River Commission Secretariat on or before the hour and date fixed for receipt of bids, in accordance with the invitation for bids.

7.3 Confirmation of participation

The company who is willing to submit their proposal should confirm by fax/email to MRCS procurement unit at least 14 days before the deadline for submission of proposals.

8. Late Proposals

Any proposal received by MRCS's procurement unit after the deadline for submission of Proposals will be rejected.

9. Criteria for Selection.

The Method of Selection is QCBS (Quality and Costs Based Selection).

a) Evaluation of Technical Proposal:

The evaluation panel will fully evaluate the Technical Proposals. The panel will determine which of the Technical Proposals pass the minimum agreed technical score specified in the Section IV.

After the evaluation of Technical Proposals has been completed, the MRCS will notify those Consultants whose proposals did not pass the minimum technical score or were considered to be non-responsive to the TOR.

b) Evaluation of Financial Proposal:

The financial evaluation shall be based on the lowest price of those bidding firms which submitted responsive Technical Proposals. The formula for determining the financial scores is the following:

$S_f = 100 \times F_m / F$, in which S_f is the financial score, F_m is the lowest price and F the price of the proposal under consideration.

c) Final evaluation and negotiations:

The final ranking of the proposals will be based on the quality of technical proposals and lowest cost.

The total score will be calculated as the weighted sum of the technical and financial scores, with the weights given to the technical and financial scores being:

70/30 where the technical proposal = 70 and the financial proposal = 30.

With regard to contract negotiations the MRCS reserves the right to invite the next-ranked firm to negotiate, if negotiations with the first-ranked firm do not result in a contract.

Bidders who pass the minimum score, but are unsuccessful based on the calculation of the technical and financial scores, will be notified after the contract with the winner has become effective.

10. Association

Proposals submitted by an association of two or more firms as partners shall comply with the stipulations:

- (i) The Proposal shall be signed so as to be legally binding on all partners
- (ii) One firm shall be nominated as the lead firm of the association.
- (iii) The lead firm shall be liable for the execution of the Contract in accordance with the Contract terms.
- (iv) The lead firm shall receive instructions for and on behalf of any and all partners.

11. Rejection of proposals

Should any Proposal fail to comply with the terms and conditions stipulated in this Request for Proposals, or be incomplete, conditional or obscure, or contain additions not called for or irregularities of any kind, or does not respond to important aspects of the RFP, and particularly the Terms of Reference or if it fails to achieve the minimum technical score indicated in Section II-9 (a) above, it may be rejected as non-responsive.

MRCS reserves the right to accept or reject any proposal, and to annul the bidding process and reject all proposals at any time prior to contract award, without thereby incurring any liability to the bidders.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

Article 1 - Independent Contractor

Nothing contained in this Contract shall be construed as establishing or creating between the Employer and the Contractor the relationship of master and servant, principal and agent or employer and employee; it being understood that the Contractor is an independent Contractor in relation to the Employer. No person engaged by the Contractor in connection with the performance of any obligation under this Contract shall be regarded as an agent, servant, employee of the Employer, and the Contractor shall be solely responsible for all claims by such persons arising out of or in connection with their engagement by the Contractor. The Contractor shall inform such persons of the foregoing.

Article 2 - Contractor's General Responsibilities

1. The Contractor shall perform its obligations under this Contract with due diligence and efficiency and in conformity with sound professional, administrative, and financial practices.
2. The Contractor shall act at all times so as to protect, and not be in conflict with, the interests of the Employer, and shall take all reasonable steps to keep all costs and expenses at a reasonable level.
3. The Contractor shall be responsible for work or services performed by its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors, and independent contractors in connection with this Contract. To this end, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Contractor shall select reliable persons who will perform effectively, respect local customs and conform to the highest standards of professional, moral and ethical conduct.
4. The Contractor shall respect and abide by all applicable laws, regulations and ordinances of Cambodia and shall take all reasonable measures to ensure that its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors, and independent contractors do.

Article 3 - Assignment of Personnel

Other than persons specifically named in this Contract, no person shall be assigned by the Contractor to work or perform services in connection with this Contract until after the Contractor has notified the Employer of the identity of such proposed persons and has provided the Employer with their curricula vitae, and the Employer has notified the Contractor that the Employer approves of such assignments.

Article 4 - Removal of Personnel

1. Upon notice by the Employer, the Contractor shall forthwith withdraw any person assigned to work or perform services in connection with this Contract and shall assign new persons in accordance with the provisions of Article 3. Such withdrawal or replacement shall not be a cause for suspension of the contract.
2. Any costs or expenses resulting from any withdrawal or replacement of persons pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article 4 shall be borne by the Contractor.

Article 5 - Employee's Compensation and other Insurance

1. The Contractor shall take out and maintain:
 - (a) all applicable employee's compensation and liability insurance with respect to its agents, servants and employees performing work or services in connection with this Contract.
 - (b) liability insurance in an appropriate amount for death, bodily injury or damage to property arising from the operation of any vehicles, boats or airplanes or other equipment owned or leased by the Contractor or its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors and independent contractors performing work or services in connection with this Contract;

(c) comprehensive general liability insurance in an appropriate amount for all claims for death, bodily injury or damage to property, including, but not limited to, products liability, arising from acts performed or omissions committed by the Contractor, its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors and independent contractors in connection with this Contract; and

(d) such other insurance as may be agreed upon between the Employer and the Contractor.

2. Upon request by the Employer, the Contractor shall provide evidence, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Employer, of the insurance referred to above and shall give the Employer reasonable advance notice of any proposed changes related to such insurance.
3. The Employer undertakes no responsibility to provide life, health, accident, travel or any other insurance coverage, which may be necessary or desirable in respect of any persons performing services in connection with this Contract.

Article 6 - Encumbrances

The Contractor shall not cause or permit any lien, attachment or other encumbrance by any third party to be placed on file or to remain on file in any public office or on file with the Employer against any money due or to become due for any work done or services rendered in connection with this Contract, or by reason of any claim or demand against the Contractor.

Article 7 - Source of Instructions

The Contractor, its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors and independent contractors, shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any authority external to the Employer in connection with the performance of their obligations under this Contract, and shall refrain from any action which may adversely affect the Employer. The Contractor shall take all reasonable measures to ensure that its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors and independent contractors comply with the Provisions of this Article.

Article 8 - Prohibition of Conflicting Activities

The Contractor and its personnel shall not engage in any business or other activity that conflicts with performance of duties under this Contract.

Article 9 - Officials not to Benefit

The Contractor warrants that no Employer official has been or will be, directly or indirectly, offered or given any inducement or benefit in connection with this Contract or the award thereof.

Article 10 - Subcontracting

The Contractor shall engage no subcontractor to perform any work or services in connection with this Contract unless the Contractor shall have notified the Employer of the identity of the proposed subcontractor and the Employer shall have notified the Contractor of its approval of the engagement of the subcontractor. The approval by the Employer of the engagement of a subcontractor shall not relieve the Contractor of any of its obligations under this Contract or from its responsibility for the work or services performed by the subcontractor.

The terms of any subcontract shall be subject to and in conformity with the provisions of this Contract. The term "subcontractor" includes any independent contractor or other person or entity with which the Contractor enters into an association, affiliation or relationship of any form for the purposes of performing work or services in connection with this Contract, other than an agent, servant or employee of the Contractor.

Article 11 - Assignment

The Contractor shall not assign, transfer, pledge or make other disposition of this Contract or any part thereof or of any of the Contractor's rights, claims or obligations under this Contract except after obtaining the prior written approval of the Employer.

Article 12 - Records, Accounts, Information and Audit

1. The Contractor shall maintain accurate and systematic records and accounts in respect of the performance of its obligations under this Contract.
2. The Contractor shall furnish, compile and make available at all reasonable times to the Employer any records, accounts or other information, oral or written, which the Employer may reasonably request in respect of the performance by the Contractor of its obligations under this Contract.
3. The Contractor shall allow the Employer or its authorized agents to inspect and audit such records, accounts or other information upon reasonable notice.

Article 13 - Language, Weights and Measurers

Except as may otherwise be specified in this Contract, the English (UK) language shall be used by the Contractor in all written communications to the Employer with respect to the performance of the obligations under this Contract and with respect to all documents procured or prepared by the Contractor pertaining to such obligations. The metric system of weights and measures shall be used in respect of all work and services performed in connection with this Contract.

Article 14 - Title to Equipment or Property

1. Title to all equipment and property furnished by the Employer for the purpose of this Contract shall rest with the Employer. The Contractor shall be responsible and accountable to Employer for all equipment or property purchased with funds provided or to be reimbursed by the Employer. The Contractor shall take all reasonable measures, including maintaining appropriate insurance, necessary to preserve such equipment or property from loss or damage until returned to the duly authorized office of the Employer upon completion of the work or services or termination of this Contract, or when no longer needed by the Contractor for the purposes of this Contract. Such equipment or property shall be returned to the Employer in the same condition as when made available to the Contractor, subject to normal wear and tear. The Contractor shall be liable to the Employer for the loss of or damage to such equipment or property, except to the extent that the Contractor proves that it took all reasonable measures to avoid the loss or damage.
2. The Contractor shall maintain an up-to-date and complete list of all equipment and property purchased by the Contractor in connection with this Contract.

Article 15 - Confidential Nature of Documents

1. All maps, drawings, photographs, plans, manuscripts, records, reports, recommendations estimates, documents and all other data (referred to hereinafter in this Article as "documents" compiled by or received by the Contractor or its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors or independent contractors in connection with this Contract shall be the property of the Employer shall be treated as confidential and shall be delivered only to duly authorized Employer officials on completion of work or services under this Contract or termination of the Contract, or as may otherwise be required by the Employer.
2. In no event shall the contents of such documents or any information known or made known to the Contractor by reason of its association with the Employer be made known by the Contractor or its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors or independent contractors to any unauthorized person without written approval of the Employer.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Contractor may retain a copy of documents produced by the Contractor.
4. The Contractor shall take all reasonable measures to ensure that its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors, and independent contractors comply with the provisions of this Article.
5. The obligations in this Article do not lapse upon termination of this Contract.

Article 16 - Use of Name, Emblem or Official Seal of the Employer

The Contractor, its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors and independent contractors shall not advertise the fact that it is performing, or has performed, work or services for the Employer or, or use the name, emblem or official seal of the Employer or any abbreviation of the name of the Employer in connection with its business for advertising purposes or for any other purposes. The Contractor shall take all reasonable measures to ensure compliance with this provision by its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors, and independent contractors. This obligation does not lapse upon termination of the Contract.

Article 17 - Copyright, Patents and Other Proprietary Rights

1. All intellectual property and other proprietary rights, including but not limited to patents, copyrights and trademarks, in all countries, with regard to maps, drawings, photographs, plans, manuscripts, records, reports, recommendations, estimates, documents and other materials, (referred to hereinafter in this Article as "materials") except pre-existing materials, publicly or privately owned, collected or prepared in consequence of or in the course of the performance of this Contract, shall become the sole property of the Employer, which shall have the sole right to publish the same in whole or in part and to adapt and use them as may seem desirable, and to authorize all translations and extensive quotations there from. If the Contractor incorporates in its materials any previously published or unpublished materials, it shall obtain permission for the publication, use and adaptation in any language free of cost to the Employer from the persons in whom any existing copyrights therein may be vested and produce evidence to the Employer of such permission.
2. The Contractor agrees that it will forthwith disclose and assign to the Employer all discoveries, processes, or inventions, made or conceived in whole or in part by it alone or in conjunction with others relating to or arising out of this Contract, and the said discoveries, processes, or inventions, shall become and remain the property of the Employer, whether or not patent applications are filed thereon
3. Upon request of the Employer and at its expense, the Contractor shall take all necessary steps, execute all necessary documents and generally assist the Employer in securing such proprietary rights and transferring them to the Employer in compliance with the requirements of the applicable law.
4. The obligations in this Article do not lapse upon termination of the Contract.

Article 18 - Amendments

No modification of or change in this Contract, waiver of any of its provisions or additional contractual provisions shall be valid or enforceable unless previously approved in writing by the parties to this Contract or their duly authorized representatives in the form of an amendment to this Contract duly signed by the parties hereto.

Article 19 - Force Majeure

1. "Force majeure" as used herein means acts of God, natural disasters, invasion or war (whether declared or not) and other hostilities, revolution, rebellion, industrial disturbance, except where solely restricted to employees of the Contractor, insurrection or riot, commotion or other disorder, ionising radiation or contamination by regular activity from any nuclear fuel or waste, radio-active toxic explosives or other hazardous properties of any explosives, nuclear assembly or nuclear components thereof, or other act, event or circumstance of a similar nature or force arising from circumstances beyond the control of the parties or which the parties could not reasonably be expected to have taken into account at the time of the conclusion of this Contract and which or the consequences of which the parties could not reasonably be expected to have avoided or overcome.
2. In the event of and as soon as possible after the occurrence of any cause constituting force majeure, which renders the Contractor unable, wholly or in part, to perform his obligations and meet his responsibilities under this Contract, the Contractor shall give notice and full particulars of such force majeure to the Employer. The notice shall include steps proposed by the Contractor to be taken, subject to the written approval of the Employer, including any reasonable alternative means for performance that is not prevented by force majeure. Subject to acceptance by the Employer of the existence of such force majeure, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld, the following provisions shall apply:
 - (a) The obligations and responsibilities of the Contractor under this Contract shall be suspended to the extent of its inability to perform them and, subject to the provisions of Para. (e) hereof, for as long as such inability continues. During such suspension and in respect of work suspended, the Contractor shall be reimbursed by the Employer for the Contractor's substantiated reasonable costs of maintenance of any of the Contractor's equipment and for reasonable per diem for the Contractor's permanent personnel rendered idle by such suspension, subject to Para. (d) hereof.
 - (b) The Contractor shall within fifteen (15) days after the notice to the Employer the occurrence of the force majeure submit to the Employer a statement of estimated costs referred to under sub-paragraph (a) above during the period of suspension. Within thirty (30) days after the end of the suspension, the Contractor shall submit to the Employer a complete statement of the Contractor's actual costs.
 - (c) The term of this Contract shall be extended for a period equal to the period of suspension taking, however, into account any special condition, which may reasonably justify the period of extension to be different from the period of suspension;
 - (d) Where the Contractor's equipment or permanent personnel referred to in sub-paragraph (a) are idle on site as a result of the suspension for a period exceeding thirty (30) days, the Contractor shall confer with the Employer in good faith with a view towards agreeing upon a reasonable reduction of the costs incurred with respect to such equipment and personnel and a reasonable apportionment between the parties of such costs. If the parties fail to agree upon such reduction or apportionment within seven (7) days after the initial thirty (30) days of suspension, the matter will be resolved in accordance with Article 29 hereof;

(e) If the Contractor is rendered permanently unable, wholly or in part, by reason of force majeure, to perform its obligations and meet its responsibilities under this Contract, the Employer shall have the right to terminate this Contract on the same terms and conditions as are provided for in Article 22, Termination by the Employer, except that the period of notice shall be seven (7) instead of fourteen (14) days; and

(f) The Employer may consider the Contractor permanently unable to perform in case of any suspension period of more than ninety (90) days.

Article 20 - Suspension by the Employer

1. The Employer may suspend, for a specified period of time not exceeding thirty (30) days, in whole or in part, payments to the Contractor and/or any of the Contractor's obligations under this Contract, if, in the Employer's sole determination:

(a) any condition arises which interferes, or threatens to interfere, with the successful carrying out of the work or services under this Contract, the Employer Project or the accomplishment of the purpose thereof, or with the performance by either party of its obligations under this Contract: or

(b) the Contractor shall have failed, in whole or in part, to perform any of its obligations under this Contract.

2. Notice of such suspension shall be given by the Employer to the Contractor, specifying the duration of the suspension. The suspension shall take effect seven (7) days after such notice.

3. If, by the expiry of the period of suspension, the Employer has not notified the Contractor to resume the performance of a suspended obligation, the Contractor may request permission of the Employer to resume such performance. If the Employer does not within 7 days after its receipt of the request, notify the Contractor to resume the performance, either party may terminate the portions of this Contract relating to the suspended obligation by giving the other party seven (7) days prior notice of such termination. If it is not possible or reasonably practicable for only those portions of the Contract to be terminated, the entire Contract may be terminated upon seven (7) days prior notice. The provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 22 shall apply in the event of any such termination.

4. (a) The Contractor shall be reimbursed by the Employer for the Contractor's substantiated reasonable extra costs, occasioned by the suspension, of necessary measures to maintain any of the Contractor's equipment and personnel assigned to the performance of this Contract, while such equipment and personnel are idle as a result of the suspension. However, such reimbursement shall not be paid if the Contractor could reasonably re-assign such equipment or personnel to other tasks or to other contracts of the Contractor.

(b) As a condition for reimbursement under this paragraph 4, the Contractor shall:

(i) within fifteen (15) days after a suspension takes effect, notify the Employer of the Contractor's good faith estimate of the anticipated extra costs; and

(ii) within thirty (30) days after the end of the suspension, notify the Employer of the Contractor's actual extra costs.

- (c) The Contractor shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided for in this paragraph 4 where the Employer has suspended an obligation of the Contractor for reasons attributable to the fault or neglect of the Contractor, its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors or independent contractors, or to a failure by the Contractor to perform an obligation under this contract

Article 21 - Additional Rules relating to Suspension

1. Except as otherwise provided in this Contract, the rules set forth in this Article apply in the event of any suspension under Article 19 or Article 20.
2. During the period of suspension, the Contractor shall provide such information as may reasonably be requested by the Employer concerning the preservation and protection of the work and services performed by the Contractor and the results thereof, and of all property of the Employer, and shall take all reasonable measures to provide for such preservation and protection. Except as provided in paragraph 4 of this Article, the Contractor shall be reimbursed by the Employer for substantiated reasonable costs incurred by the Contractor in providing such information and taking such measures, provided that an estimate of such costs shall have previously been notified to and approved by the Employer.
3. The Contractor shall produce such reports as may reasonably be requested by the Employer covering the work executed or services performed up to the time of suspension. The reports shall conform to any reasonable requirements by the Employer as to nature, structure and content. Except as provided in paragraph 4 of this Article, the Contractor shall be reimbursed for its reasonable and substantiated costs in preparing the reports, provided that an estimate of such costs shall have been previously notified to and approved by the Employer.
4. The Contractor shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided for in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article where the Employer has suspended an obligation of the Contractor pursuant to Article 20 for reasons attributable to the fault or neglect of the Contractor, its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors or independent contractors, or to a failure by the Contractor to perform an obligation under this Contract.

Article 22 - Termination by the Employer

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 19 and 20, the Employer may terminate this Contract for any reason upon not less than fourteen (14) days (in the case of Contracts initially for a period of sixty (60) days or more) or seven (7) days (in the case of Contracts initially for a period of less than sixty (60) days) notice to the Contractor.
2. Upon termination of this Contract:
 - (a) the Contractor shall take immediate steps to terminate the work and services in a prompt and orderly manner and, to that end, shall provide such information as may reasonably be requested by the Employer concerning the preservation and protection of the work or services performed by the Contractor and the results thereof and all property of the Employer, and to minimize losses and further expenditures; the Contractor shall also take all reasonable measures to provide for such prevention and protection and for minimization of losses and expenditures;
 - (b) the Contractor shall be entitled, against appropriate vouchers, to be compensated in accordance with this Contract for work or services performed satisfactorily and in accordance with this Contract prior to its receipt of the notice of termination.

(c) unless the termination has been occasioned by any fault or neglect on the part of the Contractor, its agents, servants, employees, subcontractors or independent contractors, or by any failure of the Contractor to perform an obligation under this Contract, the Contractor shall also be entitled, against appropriate vouchers, to be reimbursed for such reasonable costs and expenses as shall have been duly and properly incurred in accordance with this Contract prior to the date of such notice of termination, including such forward commitments as could not with diligent effort be cancelled or reduced, and for reasonable costs incident to the orderly termination of the services, the return travel of Contractor's personnel and the return shipment of their personal effects and of the equipment of the Contractor, to the extent that the same are not otherwise covered by any fees, reimbursements or other compensation paid or payable to the Contractor;

(d) the Contractor shall produce such reports as may reasonably be requested by the Employer covering the work and services performed up to the time of termination. The reports shall conform to any reasonable requirements by the Employer as to nature, structure and contents. The Contractor shall be reimbursed for its reasonable and substantiated costs in preparing the reports, provided that an estimate of such costs shall have previously been notified to and approved by the Employer; and

(e) the Contractor shall not be entitled to receive any payments other than those provided for in this paragraph 2.

Article 23 - Termination by the Contractor

The Contractor may terminate this Contract in accordance with Articles 19.2(e) and 20.3 above.

Article 24 - Other Rights and Remedies of the Employer

1. Nothing in or relating to this Contract shall be deemed to prejudice or constitute other rights or remedies of the Employer.
2. The Employer shall not be liable for any consequence of, or claim based upon, any act or omission the part of the Employer.

Article 25 - Bankruptcy

Should the Contractor be adjudged bankrupt, or become insolvent or should control of the Contractor change by virtue of insolvency, the Employer may, without prejudice to any other right or remedy, terminate this Contract immediately by giving the Contractor notice of such termination.

Article 26 - Facilities, Exemptions, Privileges and Immunities of Contractor and Contractor's Personnel

1. The compensation, reimbursement, remuneration and payment provided for in this Contract do not include any taxes, duties, fees or levies which may be imposed in the recipient country on salaries or wages earned by the Contractor's personnel (except the Employer nationals employed locally) in the performance of the Contract or on any equipment, materials or supplies which the Contractor may bring into that country in connection with the contract or which after having been brought into that country may be subsequently withdrawn there from. If any authority of the Employer refuses to recognize exemption from or reimbursement for such taxes duties, fees or levies, the Employer shall in no event be liable beyond the amount of said taxes, duties, fees and levies or for any failure or delay in obtaining such exemption or reimbursement.

2. The Employer will use its best efforts to obtain for the Contractor and its personnel (except the Employer nationals employed locally) such additional facilities, exemptions, privileges and immunities as the Employer has generally agreed to grant to the Contractors performing services for the Employer within the country and to their personnel. An information copy of the provisions relating to such facilities, exemptions, privileges and immunities that are contained in the Operational Agreement, may be obtained from the Employer. However, the Employer shall in no event be liable for any consequences of, or any claim based upon, any failure on the part of the Employer to carry out such undertakings.
3. Any Provisions whether in an Agreement, Project Document, or any other instrument to which the recipient Employer is a party, by which the recipient Employer confers benefits upon the Contractor and its personnel in the form of facilities, exemptions, privileges and immunities by reason of the performance of services for the Employer on this Project, may be waived by the Employer where, in its opinion, such immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the successful completion of the project or to the interests of the Employer.

Article 27 - Indemnification

The Contractor shall indemnify, hold and save harmless and defend at its own expense the Employer and its officials, agents, servants and employees from and against all suits, claims, demands and liability of any nature or kind, including costs and expenses associated therewith, arising out of acts or omissions of the Contractor or its officers, agents, servants, employees subcontractors or independent contractors in the performance of any work or services in connection with this Contract. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Article shall extend to suits, claims, demands and liability in the nature of workmen's compensation, products liability, and liability arising out of the use of patented inventions or devices, copyrighted material or other intellectual property by the Contractor, its officers, agents, servants, employees, subcontractors or independent contractors and or others responsible to the Contractor, as well as by the Employer. The obligations in this Article do not lapse upon termination of the Contract.

Article 28 - Good Faith

The Parties undertake to act in good faith with respect to each other's rights under this Contract and to adopt all reasonable measures to ensure the realization of the objectives of this Contract.

Article 29 - Arbitration

Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Contract, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall, unless it is settled amicably by direct negotiation, be settled by arbitration in Vientiane accordance with the arbitration rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) as at present in force. The appointing authority shall be the Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the Singapore International arbitration Centre ("SIAC"). The number of arbitrators shall be one. The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The Parties agree to be bound by the arbitration award rendered in accordance with such arbitration, as the final adjudication of any such disputes controversy or claim.

Article 30 - Privileges and Immunities

Nothing in or relating to this Contract shall be deemed a waiver of any of the privileges and immunities of the Employer.

Article 31 - Tax Exemption

The Operational Agreement provides, inter alia, that the Employer including its subsidiary organs, is exempt from all direct taxes and from customs duties in respect of articles imported or exported for its official use. Accordingly, the Contractor authorizes the Employer to deduct from the Contractor's invoice any amount representing such taxes or duties. Payment of such corrected invoiced amount shall constitute full payment by the Employer. In the event any taxing authority refuses to recognize the Employer exemption from such taxes, the Contractor shall immediately consult with the Employer to determine a mutually acceptable procedure.

Article 32 - Form of Notice, Request, Statement or Approval

Any notice request, statement or approval provided for in these General Conditions shall be effective if it is given in writing either by letter, facsimile or email.

Article 33 – Observance of the Law

The Consultant shall comply with all laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations bearing upon the performance of its obligations under the terms of this Contract. The Governing Law of this contract is the law of Lao PDR.
